Dear Patron,

Encore Theatre has completed another season, largely due to the efforts of our supporters. Whether as a volunteer, patron, financial contributor or a combination of all, your commitment has enabled Encore Theatre to continue presenting community theatre in Elizabeth City.

Having completed our 27th season, Encore Theatre is preparing for many more seasons of quality theatrical productions. We're excited to announce our 2019-2020 season – All Together Now!

This year Encore Theatre will celebrate community, not just a group of people living in the same place, but also a feeling of fellowship with others, as a result of sharing common attitudes, interests and goals. We'll look at all kinds of people in our 2019-2020 season. People, with all their wonderful qualities and frustrating quirks.

In September we'll kick things off at the Maguire Theatre with A Bad Year for Tomatoes, a story of community with all its challenges. In January we'll hold our first dinner theatre fundraiser at the Encore Workshop, with Tuesdays with Morrie, examining the power of community. Back at the Maguire Theatre in April, we'll celebrate the season with The Cotton Patch Gospel, a merry, musical retelling of the greatest story ever told. In June we will present our final dinner theatre fundraiser at the Encore Workshop, Briefs and Shorts, an eclectic evening of 10-minute plays, taking a humorous look at life from unique perspectives. You can read more about each show by navigating to the 2019-2020 Season page.

Encore Theatre has no paid staff and relies completely on the generous donations of time, talent and resources from local theatre enthusiasts and organizations to produce the great shows and theatrical events you have come to enjoy!

As a Dress Circle member, you have first choices of dates and seats. Opening nights are reserved especially for you, with a Dress Circle reception following the performance. You can purchase additional tickets before they are available to the public and your generosity will be acknowledged in each playbill. Only shows presented at the Maguire Theatre are included in the Dress Circle package. As always, dinner theatre tickets are sold separately.

You can make your contribution to the Dress Circle as a Patron, Sponsor, Benefactor, or Star Contributor by choosing your subscription level and completing your payment through our website.

Thank you for your support of Encore Theatre.

Sincerely,
Frank Elfring
